FARMHOUSE (Post Medieval - 1540 AD to 1900 AD)

Description and Sources

Description

Stone farmhouse with stone tiled pitched roof, of two storeys. The east end is the earlier, with a date plaque of 1634. Its sides are marked by stone quoins. It has two and three light mullioned windows. The west end is early 18th century. (1)

Wolds Farmhouse is a 17th-18th century stone farmhouse with a stone tiled pitched roof, coped gable ends and end chimneys. It is two storeys high, with three windows. The eastern end is the earliest and has a date plaque, 1634, above the window. Stone quoins mark the sides of this earlier part. The upper window is of two lights with a dripstone mould, the lower window of three lights, both have stone mullions. The western end is of early 18th century date and has stone bands above and below the windows although the bottom window extends below. The door has a flat moulded hood and a frieze with band and central panel which continues as a shouldered architrave. (2)

Vernacular building dated to 1634 and extended in the 18th century. (3)

A polished stone axehead was found in the back garden of a house on Gritstone Road in circa 1984. Exact findspot unknown, but probably towards the north-east end of the road.

Monument Types and Dates

FINDSPOT (Neolithic - 4000 BC to 2351 BC)

Description and Sources

Description

A stone axe was found in the back garden of a house on Gritstone Road, Matlock in circa 1984 during work for an extension. It was found 3ft down. The axe was taken into Sheffield City Museum. Macroscopic examination indicated that it was greenstone or epidorite rock. There was a close resemblance to Group 1 in shape (the 'Bridlington' type) and a Cornish origin was considered likely. (1)

The grid reference provided (SK 30946122) is Chesterfield Road and therefore not exact.
